5. You can sign out for an afternoon hunt after 1PM
6. Another member can sign you out if you are not there yet.
7. All guests are required to sign-in the guest book for all hunts. The member is responsible for making sure this happens.
8. You must sign back in when you return from hunting.
9. You must sign the book for all activities other than work days.
10. For deer hunts you will sign in for certain stands.
11. If you are using a climbing stand use the closest two stands to your location.
12. For turkey hunting sign out for the stands in the area you plan to hunt.
13. If you need to move stands you will need to come back to the club house and make adjustments in the book, unless someone is there that can do that for you.
14. Be courteous of other members and their hunts. During turkey season you might be hunting close to another person.
15. For duck hunts you need to sign out for stands that are close to where you will be

- hunting.
16. For Rabbit hunts mark the farm you will be hunting.
  17. If two people want to hunt the same stand you will draw cards, high card wins (Ace is always high)
  18. If you are at the club by yourself, you must contact another member to be your Call Buddy. Advise them where you will be hunting to match the book. When you are out of the woods, call them back and let them know.
  19. If you are caught hunting without using a call buddy there is a fine $50 for the call in and $50 for the call out.
  20. If you see a landowner let them know where you are hunting as well. Be mindful of farming operations
  21. If you have a guest hunting you must highlight your name in the sign-out book.
  22. If you get to the club late DO NOT RIDE BY ANOTHER HUNTER GETTING TO YOUR STAND
  23. #1 rule DON'T BE STUPID, USE COMMON SENSE!!!!

Responsibility of Call Buddy

1. If you do not get a call out in a timely manner you will try and contact the hunter.
2. If you can't reach the hunter you will then call Mark if he does not answer, call Jeremy or another member of the board.
3. We will contact the land owner for assistance
4. We will contact the local game warden or local authorities with info of last known location of the hunter.
5. Yourself and Mark or Jeremy will make their way to the club to assist in looking for the hunter.
6. If the hunter has not been found by the time you arrive at the club you will form a search party to find the hunter.
7. As you can see if you forget to call out to your call buddy a lot takes place so do not forget!

Youth Hunters

1. Any youth above 15 may hunt alone provided they have their hunter safety certificate, the adult must hunt the same farm as the youth.
2. A copy of the hunter safety card must be provided to Twin Oaks prior to the youth hunting alone.
3. Any person 16 or above must have a valid hunting license and have taken the hunting safety course to be able to hunt alone.
4. Any person 16 and older will be required to make the club workdays just like an adult member.
5. Any youth 15 and under must have in their possession a valid license exempt big game harvest report card, this applies to turkey and deer seasons. They also must hunt with an adult.
